Greetings, August 23, I999

It is good to hear from a decendant of Isaac Newton Davis as you are the second person that I have hea rd from in I5 years of researching Isaac. Sorry that we could not attend your reunion as that was the day that my wifes Snyder reunion was held in Centenial Park in Plymouth.

I see by records that you are a decendant of Lewis Davis who was a brother to Nancy Jane Davis who was my wifes g-g-grandmother. Nancy married Isaac Spaid and his sister Susanna Spaid married Lewis and Nancys brother Porter.

I would like to find out just where Isaac Newton Davis is burried. We have checked twice in the Kieferville cemetery where they say he is burried. Did he have a tomstone on the grave and it was later destroyed? We would also like to obtaine a photo of Isaac and Martha Blackburn Davis. I have a special lens for my camera to copy photoes.

I have a lot of information on the Blackburn line as a few years ago we joined the Blackburn Family Assc. and obtained a lot of information back to Nathon Blackburn in I642 in England. I also have a photo of John Blacknurn house as it stands today in Adams County PA. It was built in I742 with cut field stones. I also have photoes of Joseph and Noncy Hammond Blackburn gravestones. They both died in I845 and the stones are in very fine condition.

My wife remembers the Eckart family as they went to the same church when she wasa young child in Plymo uth. She has not seen them in years. Excuse the typing error as this typewriter is almost as old as I am.

I hope that you can put some light on where Isaac Newton is burried. I have a copy of his death certificate that states he died in Kieferville but says nothing as to where he is burried.

Sincerely,

Max E. Tribley

PREFACE and ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The following Lineage is a living and multiplying work, therefore, additions and histories will be made to the many individual families, and additional names will be made to the original alphabetized index, following that index.

Much time, effort and research has gone into the DUKES FAMILY history and lineage through the efforts of countless persons. My thanks to Doris Campbell Lunsford and Mary Lou Fundum Bahnsen both of Toledo, Ohio who are members of Nicholas Dukes Family, who kindly typed and forwarded their family history. Both ladies have close family ties to the Hancock County, Ohio area and have done much close research.

DUKES' FAMILY

(the contents were copied and sent to me by Doris Campbell Lunsford, another member of the Dukes Family) Lorna Davis Luegring

The earliest traditional history of the Dukes is hidden in doubt and does not extend the Eighteenth Century. Sometime in the latter part of the Eighteenth Century, a man by the name of John Dukes with his sister Mary, came from England, the place not known, and settled in Culppeper County, Virginia near the town of Georgetown. His father also named John, remained in England and no doubt died there. The son, also named John, soon after coming to this country married a lady by the name of Mary Haddox.

In March 1916, I made a trip to Virginia and went to the town of Culpeper and made brief examinations of the records in the Clerks office, I found where John Dukes had sold to Daniel Kendricks in 1790, 100 acres of land; also where John Dukes had sold to Daniel Kendricks in 1803, 184 acres of land. A Mr. Chas. F. Chelf who resides there and is 86 years of age thought the land was located near sperryville in what is now Rappahan County, having been detached from Culpeper County in the early part of the nineteenth Century. He says it is still called "Dukes" Field". He knew of no town by the name of Georgetown. Owing to the fact that the system of describing bounderies of farms by section lines and townships was not then adopted, makes it very difficult to determine the location of certain tracts or farms after a considerable period of time has elapsed; the only way is through tradition history gathered from the oldes inhabitant. In examination of the record I also found in the records of wills and marriages other Dukes' whose Christian names were William, Richard and John, names very common in our family today. There was also in records of marriages, one of the name of Haddox in the year 1791, which was the maiden name of Grandmother Dukes, wife of John Dukes mentioned heretofore.

From this union the foundation of the many branches of the Dukes families that we have today was laid. Here nine of the children were born. In 1806 the family came to Ohio and settled in Franklin County, about ten miles south of Columbus, at a place called Lockburne on the Ohio Canal, where the three youngest of the family were born. In 1815, Grandfather Dukes died, leaving a widow and twelve children. A few months after Grandmother Dukes married again to William Powell. Two children were born to them, the mother being 52 and 54 years of age at their birth.

The names of the Dukes children were Lydia, William, James, Patty, Stephen, John, Richard, Nancy, Nicholas, Susan, Lewis and Dillard, Names of the two Powell children were Asa and Handy.

In the year 1826 or 1827 a part of the family consisting of Grandmother Powell (as we afterward called her) came to Hancock County, bringing with her the two Powell Children, and Lewis, Dillard, and Susan of the Dukes Family. They settled on a piece of land in Blanchard Township, now known as the "Horse Shoe Bend" located on the David Downing farm.

They afterwards moved one-half mile north on the State Road to Bucyrus to prove up on some land he had bought.

Grandmother Powell continued to live upon this farm for many years, until her children were married and she became old and infirm. She then went to live with her son Richard. After some few years, arrangements were made by which a man by the name of John Boylan agreed to keep her during her lifetime for what land she had, about 30 acres, which contract was carried out to satisfaction of all concerned. She died about the year 1862, aged 92 years and some months and is buried in the Dukes Cemetery in Blanchard Township.

She was a woman of wonderful force and determintion, well built, tall and strong. Thus well fitted for the many arduous duties that was a pioneer she had to perform, and when I recall, though but a child, her stern commanding presence, her strick adherence to her notion of that which she believed just and right, I cannot help but feel a growing sense of family pride when I realize the wonderful leverage we as a family have had in decending from such a mother, giving added to the fact that it is as important to one's welfare to be well born as to be well bred.

We will now as best we may, give a short sketch of the lives and doing of the 12 children, belonging to John and Mary Dukes, just named. Many incidents connected with their history would, no doubt be very interesting to all had they been preserved in writing and kept until now, but with the exception of a few notes taken from time to time and preserved, the greater part of this story is traditional and consequently inaccurate in some minor particulars.

Before passing on to the narration of the different members of the Dukes Family, I wish to give due credit for information obtained, to my father Richard Dukes, to Newton Davis, to my two brothers, Lewis and Eli, also my sister Nancy and to my cousin Nicholas Davis. All of whom are older than I and consequently knew much more of the family. Many others belonging to the different branches of the family named have also contributed their share of the history here written.

Lydia Dukes, the oldest child of John and Mary Dukes and was born in the year 1790 and spent her childhood days among the beautiful hills and valleys of Virginia. At an early age she met and married a young man by the name of Ishmael Davis. After their first two children, John and William were born they concluded to move to Kentucky, at a place called Cynthiana, they made for themselves a home, were born to them named Elizabeth, James, Alfred and Newton. When Newton the youngest child was two years of age, the family left Kentucky and came to Franklin County, Ohio, where theDukes' had preceeded them several years. In 1830 the family came to Wyandott County, Ohio, near Crawfordsville, name for Col. Crawford who was burned at the stake by the indians. The monument erected to his memory now stands upon the old Davis Homestead.

Shortly after moving to Crawford County, the father died. The mother continuing to live on the homestead until about the year 1832 when she married a man by the name of Darrow Blodgett. By him she had two children, Mary and Richard. Between the births of the two children she sold out again and came to Hancock County and lived with her son Alfred until his marriage when she went to herself, having separated from Bldgett some years previous. Of her children John and Newton died in Putnam County, Ohio, each leaving children with families in vicinity. William died in Wyandot County, James in Iowa, both leaving families. Elizabeth marries Charles Moffitt in Union Township, Hancock County, Ohio, when they died leaving children who reside in the county. Alfred lived and died on the farm he first owned in Blanchard Township. He was as well and favorably known in his day as any man in the county, being a large land owner and an extensive feeder and breeder of fine live stock. Of superior judgement in selection and breeding he was far in advance of his day in the improvemnt and fattening of cattle and hogs. His children are all with one exception living near the place of their birth and are well and favorably known. Of the Blodgett children Mary married Elias Horn in the county and moved to Iowa near Des Moines, both are now dead. Richard married and moved somewhere in the West and is probably now dead. Aunt Lydia's children having married and left her, she came to spend her remaining days with her son Alfred, with whom she lived until her death in 1877, aged 87 years.

William Dukes, but little is known of this famly. They moved to Illinois (the place not known) previous to the year 1828, the date at which John and Richard and others of the family came to Hancock County from Franklin County, Ohio. While John and Richard remained in Hancock County, William and Stephen, thinking to better their condition, went farther west to the state of Illinois. William's two children, John and Mary Ann, came to Ohio to visit the relatives in the year 1865 or 1866. They were both remarkable for their great size and weight. (Date of William's death and location of children not known).

James Dukes, nothing is known of him except thate went down the Mississippi River on a raft in an early day, his destination being New Orleans. Nothing was hear from him afterwards.

Patty Dukes, died when a small child.

Stephen Dukes, as has been related went to Illinois with his brother William about the year 1828 and settled near Georgetown, Vermillion County. Their children were John, Ellis and William. John and Ellis visited Hancock County relatives in 1863 or 1864. Date of Stephen's death and location of children not known, with the exception of Robert, a son of Ellis, who lives near Youngstown, Ohio.

John Dukes, came to Hancock County, in 1828 with his brother Richard, in a three horse wagon from Franklin County, Ohio. They entered land together, one piece of 148 and one of 96 acres, lying east and west of the river bridge in Blanchard Township, in what is now known as the "Dukes Settlement". Soon after entering the above described land, they divided their lands, John taking the 148 acres on the east side of river bridge road, and Richard taking the 96 acres on the west side of the road. These two pieces of land were the nucleus around which both brothers added until each had 1000 acres, more or less.

John's first wife was Hannah Downing, who died at the birth of her only child, Nancy, who afterward married a man by the name of George Spangler. They are both now dead leaving a large family, most of whom are living in different part of the country.

John's second wife was a sister of his first wife, named Jane Houchen, being a widow at the time. She died in 1841, leaving no children. He then married Mary Lambert, whose maiden name was spangler, and was an aunt of the George Spangler before mentioned. This third wife, Aunt Mary as we called her, died in 1862. Their only child, when but one or two years of age was burned, causing its death. Then for the fourth time, he was married to a widow by the name of Elvira Smith. A few years afterwards he became dissatisfied and sold his estate in Hancock County and moved to Wood County, Ohio, purchasing a large tract of what was then swamp land, to the amount of 1700 acres. On account of his advanced age and the herculean task clearing and ditching, he became disheartened and died in 1876, aged 76 years. His farm, since, divided into many smaller farms, are considered among the finest and most productive in the state.

Richard Dukes, as has been stated came to Ohio, with his brother John in 1828, and added to his first entry of 96 acres, until at one time he owned close to 1000 acres.

Richard's first wife was named Mary Blue, whom he married in Franklin County, Ohio, and their first child, Lewis, was one year old when they came to Hancock County. They had 14 children, most of whom lived to be grown. They were Lewis, Daniel, Elizabeth, George, Mary, Cyrus, Nancy, Eli, Susan, Lydia, an infant son, Wesley, Pierce and an infant son. A few days after the last child was born, the mother died, followed by the little babe.

In less than a year he was married again to Eliza Delaney, a widow who had been married twice before, bringing three step-children with her, one belonging to her first husband and two to her second husband. The names of the children were John Chamberlain, and Sustavus and Mary Hanah Delaney. She died in the year 1873, having been a worthy mother to three families of children, none whom were her own.

Richard married again the third time to Delilah Watson, a sister-in-law of his last wife, with whom he lived until his death at his home in Findlay, Ohio in 1879, aged 77 years.

I cannot pass in giving this limited sketch without paying tribute of praise to him who bore my father's name. While he had a limited education owing to the lack of opportunity, his parents being very poor, I remember hearing him relate how in extreme anxiety to obtain an education, such as could be had in those early days and having no shoes he would heat a board at the fireplace, running over the frozen ground as far as he could for the cold, then put his board down and stand on it until his feet became warm, then run again and so on until he reached the schoolhouse. He always took a deep interest in church and state affairs, was agreat reader, being a constant subscriber to states and county newspapers, and while his library was limited in number of books it was comprehensive as to matters of which he in his restricted knowledge would obtain.

His desire to give to each of his children an education of the best to be had, amounted to a passion, and each of his children boys and girls alike, who lived to be old enough to complete their studies at the district school were sent away to colleges of their choosing where they might be able to obtain a thorough knowledge in more advanced studies. Nine of the brothers and sisters were thus sent away enabling them to obtain a more complete education, better fitting them for the duties of life. I am sure that as his children, we are thankful and glad that it fell to our lot to have so good a father. Of the children of Richard Dukes, four are still living; Nancy Delana in Oklahoma; Susan Porter Lewis, in Oakland, California; Eli and William P. in Findlay, Ohio. Lewis the oldest died in Findlay, Ohio, May 4, 1912, having accumulated large land estates in Blanchard Township, this county, giving each of his children a beautiful home beside giving large bequests to Ada College and the Christ Hospital and Deaconess Home in Cincinnati, also Y.M.C.A. in Findlay, Ohio. Other children who are dead are Mary Hardy buried in Pendleton, Indiana; Cyrus in Marion, Iowa; Elizabeth Marshal Chariton, Iowa, beside two of her children, Homer and Lizzie. The balance of the family are buried in the Dukes Cemetery as follows: Father and Mother; Daniel, George, Lydia, two infants, Wesley and Lewis.

Nancy Dukes, lived in Illinois and probably went there with her two brothers, William and Stephen, spoken of before in the year 1828. She first married a man by the name of Barbee, and lived at Shelbyville, Ill. They had three girls, Martha, Mary and Malinda. Barbee having died, she married again to a man named James Lenox by who she had four children, Harvey, Lewis, Marion and Nancy. Lewis is the only one now living, his address is Keystone, Oklahoma, he having moved farther west. Nancy came to Hancock County, Ohio, after the war and was married to John Groves. She died in 1880, leaving a husband and several children, who are still living in the county. She often came to visit her brothers and sisters in Hancock County and well I remember when but a small boy I looked forward with pleasure to the time when she was to come to our home. She was one of those joyous natures full of jokes and anecdotes about her life in the west, always being able to see the funny or ludicrous side to every happening. She died in Shelbyville, Illinois about thirty years ago, date not known.

Nicholas Dukes, came to Hancock County about the same time his brothers Richard and John, and entered land in Union Township, also in adjoining county of Putnam. His first wife was Lavenia Downing, they had three children, George, John and William, all of them are now dead. His first wife dying, he married again to a woman by the name of Sarah Smith. Four children were born to them, David, Mary, Lewis and Lyman. All are dead except Mary and Lewis, who live near the old homestead.

Nicholas Dukes died early in life, but had accumulated a large body of fine land and much livestock at the time of his death. He was considered by those who knew him to be possessed of an exceptionally bright mind and wonderful ability to accumulate wealth.

Susan Dukes, was the 10th child and as before stated came to Hancock County with her brothers in 1826 or 1827. She married Phillip McKinnis, belonging to one of the first families that settled in Hancock County. Their children - Charles, William, Elizabeth, Robert, Mary, Pierce, Eliza, Phillip, Richard, Lewis and Caroline.

Pierce, Richard and Lewis and probably Eliza, are still living somewhere in the northwest. Uncle Phillip and Aunt Susan died within a few years of each other, many years ago, on their farm about one mile west of Leipsic, Putnam County, Ohio. They were known for their kindly disposition and great indulgence of their children.

Lewis Dukes, came to Hancock County with his mother when he was 16 or 17 years of age. He first entered land south of the Blanchard River in Blanchard Township. He married a woman from Licking County, named Laura Bean. They acquired more land, making their permanent home on the North River road, in what is called the "Dukes Settlement". When about 60 years of age, his wife, Aunt Laura, as we called her, died. In two years he married again to Harriet Alward, a widow and niece of his first wife.

He died April 3, 1886, aged 75. No children were born to him. Uncle Lewis was a typical self made man with no education advantages to speak of. He showed a wonderful adaptability to the changing circumstances which surrounded him; he was a natural mechanic, constructing and operating an early day sawmill of the most primitive fashion, yet he accomplished wonders in his line, buying from the lands surrounding, the finest of timber which North Western Ohio was noted for, his markets were Albany and Buffalo and many other Eastern cities. Walnut timber was very plentiful in those days, and I have heard my father tell of selling to him the largest of his walnut trees for $1.00 each as he was clearing the land and must dispose of them. The construction of his own house in which he lived and died was a revelation and a monument to his skill and industry. The doors, windows, sash and mouldings were made entirely by him; the mouldings of which there were many of various shapes were worked out by his own hand he grinding and fashioning the bits for the planes that made them; he fashioned and cut our of bark numerous and wonderful figures for the stamping of materials for his wife to make curtains for the windows, and well I remember the joy I experienced when but a small boy, Aunt Laura would allow me to explore the garrett where in a box, hundreds of these types or stamps were stored. In temperment he was considered rather a stern and irascible, often impatient and prone to find fault with every one, when something went wrong, but underneath his seeming crusty exterior, he had a kindly and generous heart, as many would testify with whom he had to do.

Dillard Dukes, was the youngest of the Dukes family and as before stated, came to Hancock County with his mother in 1826 or 1827. He was born in Franklin County, March 20, 1813 therefore was 11 or 12 years of age when he came to Hancock County. His first wife was a woman by the name of Rebecca Miller. Their three children were John and Mary Jane who both died in infancy and Eliza Stewart, who is still living at Leipsic, Ohio. The family was taken with milk sickness, a disease very prevalant in certain localities in an early day. The wife and the two elder children died.

He was married again to Miss Eliza J. McDowell and sometime afterwards, moved about two miles west of Benton and bought land in Blanchard and Union Townships. Here he lived for many years until his death in 1890, his wife preceeding him in 1889.

Their children were Laura, Jasper, Irvin, Marretta, Elizabeth, Caroline and Richard. Laura, Jasper and Marretta still live in this county, the other three have long since passed away.

Uncle Dillard was one of those quiet peaceful men just the opposite of his brother Lewis and instead of meeting opposition with opposition chose rather to follow the lines of least resistance, he was physically disqualified for hard labor having as has been stated, been the subject of an attact of milk sickness earlier in lfe, he acquired considerable competance having one of the finest farms and beautiful homes in the township in which he lived

In writing the foregoing abbreviated history of the older members of the Dukes family, I have not gone farther than the third or fourth generation for obvious reasons, as much time and labor would be required on account of the various subdivisions and greater number of individuals to be accounted for; neither have I entred into the personal history, characteristics, etc., of but few of the individuals mentioned, for the same reason.

I leave these pages for some future historian of the family to elaborate upon and extend as may suit their fancy. I feel so far, I have but done a duty to the relatives that has already been delayed too long, but which will now be made easier to extend to succeeding generations.

Sincerely yours,

W.M.F. Dukes, Author

Davis Family, Pioneers Of Hancock, Putnam Counties

The following historical account of the Davis family, pioneers of Hancock and Putnam counties, by R. L. Spaid, member of the family, Ft. Wayne, Ind., in connection with the third annual reunion held recently at the home of Mrs. Nannie M. Robinson, three miles west of Mc Comb.

JOHN DUKES and Mary Haddox were married in Virginia about 1788. She was born March 21, 1770, died May 1, 1862, and is buried in the Dukes-Davis cemetery, Blanchard township, Hancock county, Ohio. Their first child was Lydia Dukes, born Dec. 28, 1789, died Jan. 16 1877, and is buried by the side of her mother.

Lydia Dukes married Ishmael Davis in Virginia, and their first child, John Davis, pioneer settler of Van Buren township, Putnam county, was born Nov. 22, 1809, in Culpepper county, Virginia. After the birth of their second child, William Davis — the pioneer settler of Crawford, Ohio—the parents migrated to Cynthiana, Ky., where James Davis was born in 1812; Elizabeth Davis-Moffit, born Jan. 15, 1814: Alfred Davis, April 15, 1815, and Issac Newton Davis was born March 12, 1817.

In 1806 John Dukes and family came up from Virginia, and settled at Lockbourne, Franklin county, which had been formed in 1803. Here at Lockbourne three more children were born to John Dukes and Mary Haddox, making twelve, seven of whom about 1827 became the Dukes pioneer settlers of Blanchard and Union townships, Hancock county.

In 1818 the Ishmael Davis family left Kentucky, and joined the John Dukes family at Lockbourne, where both of these fathers died, John Dukes in 1815, and Ishmael Davis sometime after 1820.

By the treaty made with Gen. Wayne in 1795, the Indians ceded title to the southern and eastern part of Ohio, but they still held title to all the territory now comprising the seventeen north-western counties until the treaty made Sept. 29, 1817, at Maumee Rapids. In 1799 the U. S. Government had run and established the first principal meridian, which later became the line between Ohio and Indiana. Having received title to the northwestern part of Ohio by the treaty of 1817, the U. S. Government proceeded to survey this territory. The Base Line of survey was extended west to the first principal meridian, and measuring from these two lines the townships were blocked out and then sub-divided into sections.

On April 1, 1820, this territory was set up into a few large counties, and in April 24, 1820, the congress enacted a law providing for the sale of this land to settlers, Wapaukonetta (as then spelled). From this date settlers could get title to the land in this part of Ohio. This fact explains why northwestern Ohio was not settled until seventeen and more years after Ohio had become a state.

Ishmael Davis selected as his future home the quarter-section which later became the pioneer home located one and one-half miles north-east of Crawford, Ohio and now known as the William Davis homestead.

Hancock county was formed April 1, 1820, and in 1830 had a population of 813, in which number were the Dukes pioneers and some of the Davis family. In 1830 Putnam county had a population of 230.

On Oct. 7, 1835, John Davis received a government land patent for the farm he owned in Van Buren township, Putnam county, and where he lived until his death Nov. 5, 1876.

The family of John Davis and Margaret Berry was represented at the reunion by the presence of Mrs. Izora Davis- Orem, their youngest child, born June 23, 1860, and her daughter, Hallah, of Findlay; Mrs. Daisy Cummins-Greening, and husband Lewis A. Greening, Hillsdale, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Fast, Camden, Mich.; Mrs. Iola Fast-Comar and husband, Rae J. Comar, Monroe, Mich.; George D. Fast, Martie E., Eylene and Craydom Fast, Jonesville, Mich. This family has one living child in the person of Mrs. Mary Davis-Cummins, Hillsdale, Mich. Another daughter, Mrs. Rebecca Davis-Butler, died Sept. 10, 1934 at Athens, Alabama.

The William Davis and Lucy Brayton family of Crawford, Ohio, was represented by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Herd, Carey; Mrs. Ora Davis, Mullholand, their daughter, Muriel, Defiance; Mrs. Florence Davis-Hetzel and husband, Robert G. Hetzel, daughter Lucy C. Hetzel, Upper Sandusky; and Miss Blanche H. Davis, Findlay.

This branch lost the oldest member of the entire family on Jan. 26, 1935 when death came to their son, Rev. William Henry Davis, born at Crawford, Feb. 14 1843, died at Mooreland, Indiana.

The Elizabeth Davis and Charles Moffitt family has one living son, Byron Davis Moffitt, born in 1847, residing in Long Beach, Calif. He is now the oldest living member of the entire family.

Those present at the reunion were W. B. Aukerman, Clara and Clarence Aukerman, Elmer A. and Blanche Aukerman, McComb.

The Alfred Davis and Nancy Huchins family was represented by the presence of Mrs. Cora L. Davis - Dukes, daughter, Doris Dukes - Lytle and husband, V. C. Lytle; Mrs. Dorothea Davis- Van Sant and husband, Harry Van Sant, daughter Florence Alice Ban Sant, Findlay; Mr. and Mrs. Orie T. Davis, Leipsic; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Van Sickle, McComb.

The reunion was held at the splendid home of Mrs. Nannie M. Robinson, daughter of Alfred Davis and Mrs. Amanda Stough, his second wife. Mrs. Robinson is the only living child of Alfred Davis.

The Issac Newton Davis and Martha Blackburn family was represented by the presence of two of their sons, Seward Davis, McComb, and Austin Lane Davis, Paulding. A daughter, Mrs. Euphemia M. Miller (affectionately known to all as "Aunt Sis"), living in Belmore, was unable to attend. She was born Dec. 2, 1849.

With Seward Davis was his wife, Grace C. Davis; Guy C. Davis; Mrs. Mima Davis-Belford and husband, Sam Belford; Mildred K. Belford, Findlay; Mrs. Ollie Jenkins; Mrs. Ethel Snyder; Dorothy Wise; Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brecht, McComb; Rolla L. Davis, Miss Essie Davis, Mrs. Nellie Davis-Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. Merle C. Davis, their children, Phyllis Louise and Donald Eugene, Grover Hill; Mr. and Mrs. R. Tod Davis, Antwerp; Mrs. Burd F. Davis, Paul R. Davis, Paulding; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse T. Hanawalt, Miss Grace and Jesse Wayne Hanawalt, Defiance; Mr. and Mrs. Porter Davis, daughter, Marvelyn, Leipsic; Harold Y. Lafferty, Fostoria; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brecht, daughter Jo Ann, Deshler, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spaid, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Guy C. Davis and Orie T. Davis were elected as vice-presidents to assist in carrying on the work of the reunion.

The fourth annual reunion will be held on the third Sunday in Aug. 1936 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brecht, located on the line between Hancock and Putnam counties, and one and one-half miles north of highway 113.

927 Furnace Rd.
Iron Station, N.C. 28080
Phone: 704) 732-6838

Came from Wales - descended from King George III. He was a Davis. When he died, his relatives and family feared for their lives so they got 2 ships and came to America.

the Coat of Arms for the Davis Family was 3 Boars

His Great-Grandfather, Eavis Davis, had 5 sons, Pennsylvania
3 brothers went to Virginia
1 to tennessee
1 to Georgia
the one in tennessee went to Alabama later
Rev. John Davis came from tennessee branch of the family. His Grandfather brothers were Noah Davis and Daniel Davis

Information from Washington D. C., Bureau of Information.

The Kentucky Tax Rolls dated June 25, 1787, has Mr. John Dukes, Thos. Davis and son owning 9 cattle which remains basic thru.1797. In 1797, Ishmael Davis was living in Bourbon County, Kentucky. It is noted that Ishmael was "tithable and owned 2 horses that were taxable". He is living in the "forks" with a group of families among them a Thos. Davis.

From the 1800 U.S. Census we learn that Ishmael is white, over 21, and that he owned 263 acres of 2^d rate land mostly in Mason County, Kentucky. The land was located on the Salt Lick watercourse.

(in working on the McClure, the reference was made: 116 division, Kentucky District of the State of Virginia)(this may help clear up or muddy the water more)

A Will, from the Index of Franklin County Ohio Wills, written by John Dukes, Hamilton Township and proven June 24 1814, mentions widow Mary Dukes, his oldest daughter Lydia Davis, daughters Nancy and Susannah, minors. Exuctor was Lishmael Davis, witnessed by John Johnston, Asa Dunn, John Thompson and Joseph Gifford. From the Book The Ohio Genealogist, mentions the above material plus - the 2 youngest daughters are to have good bed and furniture when they become of age".

Virginia Military Land Grants, Franklin County, Ohio records show that John H. Dukes owned 154½ acres of land - Range 22, Township 3, Section 23, Southwest, farmed by Ishmael Davis, whose previous residence was Pickaway County, Ohio. This was given as 1816 and remained basic until 1820. In 1820, apparently Ishmael purchased his own land from the United States Military Lands in Franklin County, Ohio: 165 acres Range 16, Township 2, Section 1, Southest 2^d rate land.

(Pickaway County, 1816 Tax Lists (microfilm) states that Ishmael has 154 acres, 3^d class land, located on the Big also from the above mentioned book, in a chapter Licensed Tavern Keepers of Central Ohio 1803 - 1847. A license was issued in Hamilton Township to John Dukes, 1813 - Mary Dukes, 1814. Taken over from Mary Dukes by William Powell, 1816. Mary Dukes married William Powell following John's death.

On August 27, 1808, Ishmael Davis, John Dukes, Wm. D. Hendren, Wm. Clevenger, Mary Dukes, Nancy Chester, Elizabeth Cherry, Eleanor Peterson and Mary Rawlings were constituted into a regular Baptist chruch, called Bethel, by Elders Wm. Brundidge and John W. Loofborrow. For several years the meetings were held at the residences of Wm. D. Hendren and Wm. Clevenger. As was the custom of all the pioneer churches of the township, meetings were held but once a month. No meetings were held in November, December and January, in the winter of 1808-1809, on account of the severe weather and high waters. In July 1809 John Swisher and wife and Jane Puntney become members. In 1815 meetings were held alternately at Bro. Hendren's and Sister Caldwell's. "On June 22, 1816, by a unanimous vote, Bro. Ishmael Davis was called to exercise his gifts." The first church building, a frame, was erected in 1838-39, about one-half mile west of town, and is now.........

In 1834 Mrs. Lydia Davis, nee Dukes (sister of Lewis Dukes, Sr.) with her sons, John, Alfred, James and Newton settled on the Blanchard. Her first husbands name was Ishmael Davis, who died in Franklin County, Ohio. The widow later married Mr. Seldon Blodgett, they soon parted. Blodgett came to this county in 1827 leaving in 1832 before the Davises arrived. Alfred has been the most prosperous of any of the sons and is today one the largest land owners and wealthiest in Hancock County. Newton is also a resident of the township. The mother died January 16, 1877 in 88th year. She was buried in Dukes Cemetery, north of the Blanchard in Section 15 and 16.[1]

Presumably it is who writes the article that gets the credit, because we find in a biographical paragraph of Seldon Blodgett: Seldon Blodgett came from the Tymochtee (the left branch of the Sandusky River, a creek) as early as 1827 because he was registered and voted in 1828. In April 1831, his wife died leaving him with several children. He married Mrs. Lydia Davis, widow of Franklin County, Ohio. They soon parted, he going to Michigan. She (Lydia) kept the farm on the Blanchard."[1] No mention is made of his children.

Under date of January 14, 1837, the minutes record the following: "Resolved, that we thankfully accept Bro. Samuel Richardson's proposal for building a Baptist meeting house." The building committee was Wm. W. Richardson, Jacob Weaver and John Swisher. The first meeting held in this building was on March 16, 1839. Soon after the building was occupied a division arose, some favoring missions and Sunday schools, the others opposing them. On April 18, 1840, Elkanah Simms, Thos. Around the middle of the eighteenth century Evan Davis, of Welsh descent, journeyed from his native Pennsylvania to the new colony of Georgia. His only son, Samuel Emory Davis, was born there in 1756. When the time came young Samuel joined the War for Independence and fought against the British in South Carolina and Georgia, mustering out as a captain and receiving a two hundred acre tract near Augusta in reward for his services. Marrying a Scotch-Irish girl he had met in South Carolina during the war, Samuel Davis settled on his new tract, acquired a couple of field hands, and devoted himself in earnest to farming and child raising.

A decade and five children later, in 1793, Davis took his family and his slaves to Kentucky, whence tales of varied opportunity and fertile acres were circulating on the Atlantic seaboard. The Davises settled on a heavily forested six-hundred acre tract in the southwestern part of the new state, between the settlements at Hopkinsville and Bowling Green. While Samuel Davis, aided by the Negroes and the older boys, cleared land and planted small stands of wheat and corn and began experiments in tobacco culture and horse raising, new Davis children continued to arrive. Four boys and girl had made the trip from Georgia; four more girls appeared at approximately two-year intervals on the new Kentucky homestead. The tenth and last child, named Jefferson in honor of Samuel Davis's political hero, was born on June 3, 1808

SOME HISTORY OF THE DUKE-DAVIS FAMILY

In the History of the Dukes Family which W. Pierce Dukes published in 1916, he states the following:

"Sometime in the latter part of the 18th century, John Dukes, with his sister Mary, came from England and settled in Culpeper Co., Virginia, John Dukes married Mary Haddox in Virginia. She was born March 21, 1770, and they were married about 1788. Their first child, Lydia Dukes, was born near Sperryville, now in Rappahannock Co., Virginia. Nine children were born to John and Mary Haddox-Dukes before the family left Virginia and settled in Franklin Co., Ohio, near Lockbourne, in 1806. Here John Dukes died in 1815, after three more children had been born. It was these children who later became the pioneer settlers of Hancock County, in 1827. Mary Haddox-Dukes married William Powell, and became the mother of Asa and Handy Powell. She died May 1, 1862, and is buried in the Dukes-Davis Cemetery, Blanchard Twp.

Lydia Dukes, the oldest child of John and Mary Haddox-Dukes was born December 28, 1789, and married Ishmael Davis in Virginia and they lived in Culpeper Co., until their two oldest children were born. The first child was John Davis, who born November 22, 1809 and William David, the second child, and pioneer of Crawford, Ohio was born in 1811

After the birth of these two children, Ishmael Davis migrated to Cynthiana, Harrison Co., Kentncky, [illegible] James Davis was born in 1812 or 1813; Elizabeth Davis was born Jan. 15, 1814; Alfred Davis was born April 15, 1815; and Isaac Newton Davis was born March 12, 1817.

In 1818, Ishmael Davis and family left Kentucky and came to Franklin Co., Ohio, and lived near Lockbourne, where John Dukes and family had settled.

On April 1, 1820, the U.S. Government began to sell the land in the 20 counties in north-western Ohio to settlers. Ishmael Davis so acted the N.E. 1/4 of Sec. 26, now in Crawford Twp., Wyandot Co., and on October 19, 1820, at the land office which had been opened at Delaware, Ohio he paid $200.00 for this tract of 160 acres, and on Dec. 10, 1821 the government issued Land Patent #241 to him for this quarter section, which later became the old Davis homestead. The tradition is that Ishmael Davis became ill about this time and died in Franklin Co., and is probably buried in the same pioneer cemetery in which the family buried his father-in-law, John Dukes, who had died in 1815.

On October 7, 1835 the U.S. Government issued Land Patent #3037 signed by Andrew Jackson to John Davis for the S 1/2 of the SE Sec. 3, Twp. 2 North, Range 5 East, 80 acres in the Van Buren Twp. , Putnam County Ohio, where he lived until his death. In 1876 the north-western part of the farm was still uncleared but the trees had been girdeled and were dead. The old frame house had a fireplace in each end stairwyas. The house stood on the southside of the road, near the west end of the triangle lot on the south side. East was quite a good orchard, also some apple trees on the north side of the road and east of the barn. The barn then had the usual wagon shed and corn crib, on the west end.

John and Margaret (Berry) Davis had twelve children. The first child was Ishmael, named for his grandfather Ishmael Davis, the child died in infancy. The next son was William Davis born in 1836 or 1837. Cinderella, who married Jonathan Fast, may have been older than William Harrison Davis.

Geroge Washington Davis, born 1839 or 1840, enlisted as a volunteer on Sept. 2, 1861, at the age of 21 years, in the 21wt Ohio Volunteer Infantry, Company "O". He was taken prisoner by the Rebels, Sept. 20, 1863 at the Battle of Chicamauga. After enduring the horrors and suffering of prison life for about a year, he died of starvation in Andersonville Prison, on Aug. 31, 1864.

John Adams Davis served all through the Civil War. He volunteered along with his brother George, on Sept. 2, 1861, for a period of three years which he served then re-enlisted for the war which proved to almost another year. He was appointed Corporal on April 1, 1865. Honorably discharged as a Veteran and mustered out with his company on July 25, 1865.

ALFRED K. DAVIS was born in this township August 23, 1838. He is a son of William and Lucy (Brayton) Davis, who were born in this State, married in Wyandot County, resided most of their lives in this county, and reared four children—Anna L., Alfred K., William H. and Lucy. The father died in March, 1846; the mother in March, 1873. Mr. Davis was married, December 4, 1865, to Miss Sarah Hurd, of this county, a native of Indiana, and daughter of Imez and Sarah (Jameson) Hurd, who were natives of York State. Her parents moved to Indiana about 1840, and to Michigan in 1845; settled in Allegan County, and reared nine children, five of whom survive, viz., Alexandra, Caroline, Sybil, Francis M. and Sarah. Her mother died in 1841; her father in 1846. Mr. Davis farmed the old homestead for several years, inheriting a portion of the same in 1860. In 1872, he purchased the farm upon which he now resides, and which he has improved by good buildings and cultivation. He owns 250 acres, valued at $50 to $75 per acre, and devotes his chief attention to agriculture and stock-raising. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are the parents of seven children—Olive S. was born January 23, 1867; Edna C., January 11, 1869; Cora, January 12, 1873; Ora C., June 5, 1874; Florence, November 12, 1876; Blanch and Brayton, September 20, 1880. All are living but Cora, who died July 2, 1873. In political sentiments, Mr. Davis favors Republican policy. He is one of the prominent farmers of the township, and his farm is the seat of the historic battle-ground where Col. Crawford was defeated and burned by the Indians, and where a monument has been erected to his memory. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are both associated with the Methodist Episcopal Church.

then raised himself upon his feet and began to walk around the post; they next put a burning stick to him as usual, but he seemed more insensible of pain than before.

The Indian fellow who had me in charge now took me away to Captain Pipe's house, about three quarters of a mile from the place of the Colonel's execution. I was bound all night and thus prevented from seeing the last of the horrid spectacle.

The next morning being June 12th, the Indians untied me, painted me black and we set off for the Shawanese town, which he told me was somewhat less than forty miles from that place.

We soon came to the spot where the Colonel had been burnt as it was partly in our way. I saw his bones lying among the remains of the fire, almost burnt to ashes. I suppose that after he was dead they laid his body on the fire.

THE CRAWFORD MONUMENT

Crawford township, Wyandot county, is where Col. William Crawford was burnt at the stake in 1782. The exact spot on which the burning took place is not now positively known, though a monument has been erected to the unfortunate hero near the place where the horrible death is supposed to have been inflicted. This monument was erected August 30, 1877, on a high bank south of Tymochtee creek, near the east line of the southwest quarter of section 26, on lands now owned by Alfred K. Davis. It was obtained as a result of the efforts of the Wyandot Pioneer Association, and in the presence of near eight thousand citizens was dedicated to the memory of him whose name is inscribed upon its surface. On the occasion referred to, Col. M. H. Kirby was chosen as president and Curtis Berry, Jr., secretary. Prayer was offered by Rev. R. C. Colmery and Rev. John Sherrard, of Bucyrus, grandson of John Sherrard, who was under the command of Colonel Crawford at the time of his defeat in 1782, delivered the opening address, followed by other speeches by the old pioneers. A collection was taken to defray the expenses of the monument, a basket dinner was partaken of by the myriads present, after which followed an able address by Gen. William H. Gibson, whose brilliant oratory did great credit to the subject and the occasion. The dedicatory remarks were made by the secretary, Hon. Curtis Berry, Jr., who originated the idea of erecting the monument, Mr. John Gormley suggesting its form and altitude.

This shaft is made of Berea sandstone, and is eight and one-half feet in height. It is supported by a base six inches larger in diameter than the main shaft, and bears the following inscription:

> "In memory of Colonel Crawford, who was burnt by the Indians in this valley June 11, A. D. 1782."

On the base:

> "Erected by the Pioneer Association of Wyandot County August 3, 1877."

Many of the old pioneers of the county were present to share the honors of the day, and recount the scenes and hardships of their early days and efforts in the wilds of Wyandot, among them being Hon. George W. Leith, Daniel Funk, James and Rhoda Miller, Mary Karr, Frances Brackley, Solomon Spoon, Adam High, Jacob Stryker, Jacob Corfman, George James, John Ribley, Hamilton Morrison, and many others whose ages ranged from seventy to ninety years.

At the time of Crawford's battle with the Indians, the Delawares, under Captain Pipe, had a large town a few miles to the northwest of the scene of the engagement, the vicinity of the present village of Crawfordsville. In anticipation of defeat the old men, women and children of the tribe were concealed at the mouth of Tymochtee creek, and runners communicated with them every hour at the camp, giving information as to the progress of the battle, the intention being to flee to the "Black Swamp," a large expanse of land, lying east of the Maumee river, in case of defeat. A colored man, by the name of Samuel Wells, was with these Indian families at the time referred to, and is said to have been the servant of Simon Girty, the semi-savage, who played so conspicuous a part in the Crawford horror. This negro slave lived to the advanced age of one hundred and ten years, and, as late as 1857, was a township charge in Eden township, this county.

The Clan Moffit in America

A family genealogy in preparation. George ?est Moffit, Editor and Historian. Lawrence, Kansas

Subject: Robert Moffit, 1st

Robert Moffit, 1st, was born in Scotland and imigrated to Ireland when young and there married Margaret Stuart from England, a near realitive of King James II. Their children were as follows:

(Two names that are unreadable), William, Adam, Margaret, Catherine, Robert II, Hugh, John and Patrick. The latter never came to America. John came over but went back, married, and died in Ireland. William came over - first alone - and west back, but being pleased with the country, he James Adam, Charles, Hugh and Robert II came to America and remained at Philadelphia, Pa, for some time. Then they went into North Caroline-Chatham or Randolph Counties. James went west into Georgia or South Carolina about the year 1790. William, Adam, and Charles died in North Carolina. Hugh (who was my great, great Grandfather, emigrated to Ohio and settled near Chilicothe in 1798 or 1799.

Charles Davis, the son of a widow in England, was put to the weaver's trade, but not being pleased with his situation left England without his mother's knowledge and landed in Philadelphia Pa., where he was sold to pay his passage. After working that out, he went into North Carolina, married and raised a family. William and Hugh Moffit married his daughters, Hugh married Hannah Davis. Their children were:

Robert III, born 1769 September 17
John, 1771 January 12
Joshua (my great grandfather) 1772 December 15
Charles, 1774 (month unreadable) 29
Joseph, 1776 /December
Jeremia, 1778 Sept 28
Ruth, 1780 Sept. 16
Nathan, 1783 June 30
Hannah, 1785 October 5
Mary, 1790 December 15

All these children were born in North Carolina before emigrating to Ohio. Hugh Moffit, my great-great-grandfather died about the year 1800 at Chillicothe, Ohio. Robert Moffit II started back to Ireland, but was (two words unreadable) from by those that remained in America. They and those (many words) vessels were the only kind in use at (many words) this time we find the name changed from Moffit to Moffitt. Joshua Moffitt, grandson of Robert Moffit I and my great grandfather, and son of () Moffitt, was born in North Carolina, December 1, 1770. His wife, Sarah (Ward) Moffitt, daughter of Thomas and (Margery) Ward, was born June 6, 1782. Their children were:

Thomas I, who reared a family and died at an advanced age at Moffitt's Grove, Guthrie County, Iowa; he had two sons - Owland and Myron - who live, or did live at Moffitt's Grove; their sister, Mrs. Bryan also lives in the vicinity of Henry, (Joshua Moffitt's second son) also lived and died at Moffitt's Grove. He had one son, Bruce, and a daughter Harriet who married N. Bishop McClish of Benton Ridge, Ohio. Three childrenw were born to this marriage--Ivy Jane McClish Bartoon who died leaving no living children; Herman Luce McClish raised a family at Findlay, Ohio. His oldest son, Allen Bishop McClish is in Toledo; others of his children live in Cleveland and California. Mary Ellen McClish-Wickham was born March 4, 1854, and married Minor Thomas Wickham, 1871. Three children survive this marriage; Alvah B. Wickham 1400 Scotten Ave., Detriot, MI; Iva Jane Wickham-Wise Canton Ave., Detroit, MI.; Clinton Wickham, 2211 Springwell Ave, Detroit, MI.

Joab, (Joshua Moffitt's thrid son) west from Ohio to California in 1850, and later to Oregon. He had one daughter, Josephine.

David (Joshua Moffitt's fourth son) reared a family at Williamsport, In, and died there. He had three sons.

Charles Moffitt (Joshua Moffitt's fifth son) was born at Chillicothe, Ohio, December 9th, 1813. He wife, Elizabeth Davis-Moffitt, was born at Lexington, KY, January 15th, 1814 being the daughter of Ishmael and Lydia Dukes Davis. Charles and Elisabeth Davis Moffitt are my maternal grandparents. Grandfather Charles Moffitt went to California in 1849 during the first gold excitement and remained there until 1856--going overland from Findlay, Ohio and returning via Cape Horn and New York City. His children are Melissa Euphemia Moffitt Wickham, the first wife of Minor Thomas Wickham, and was born at Findlay, Ohio December 24, 1837, died December 6, 1870, leaving five children:

William H. Wickham, born October 23, 1860 Chicago, IL;
Charles Sherman Wickham, born October 23, 1865, died November 21, 1870;
Ella Viola Wickham Irwin, twin of Chas. Sherman, born October 23, 1865, living at Findlay, Ohio;
Lydia Florence Wickham Bruning, born September 5, 1867, living at San Diego, Ca.
John Ermerson Wickham, born September 17, 1869, died at Boulder, CO.

Lydia Moffitt Aukerman, born October 20, 1840; died; was buried at McComb, Ohio. Her children are:

INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS CARD

NOTE:—1. These Cards are intended to accompany the Pedigree Chart—one card for each member of the family tree.

2. If the study is to be of value, all statements—concerning both "good" and "bad" traits—must be frank and fair.

3. In items numbers 19, 20, 21, 22, 32, 33, 39, 41, 43, 44, 46, 48, 51, 52, 56, 57, 58 and 59 grading by underscoring is called for. In these cases use the following system: Underscore with one, two or three lines according as the ability, the predilection, or the possession, as the case may be, is average, is somewhat above medium, or, is extremely high (such as is possessed by one person in 1,000): Strike out with one or two lines according to whether the grade for the special ability, the aversion, or the lack, as the case may be, is somewhat below medium, or is strikingly low. Absence of underscoring or striking out implies no consideration of the trait in the person.

INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS CARD

NOTE:—1. These Cards are intended to accompany the Pedigree Chart—one card for each member of the family tree.

2. If the study is to be of value, all statements—concerning both "good" and "bad" traits—must be frank and fair.

3. In items numbers 19, 20, 21, 22, 32, 33, 39, 41, 43, 44, 46, 48, 51, 52, 56, 57, 58 and 59 grading by underscoring is called for. In these cases use the following system: Underscore with one, two or three lines according as the ability, the predilection, or the possession, as the case may be, is average, is somewhat above medium, or, is extremely high (such as is possessed by one person in 1,000): Strike out with one or two lines according to whether the grade for the special ability, the aversion, or the lack, as the case may be, is somewhat below medium, or is strikingly low. Absence of underscoring or striking out implies no consideration of the trait in the person.

Martha Davis' Obituary

Martha Davis, nee Blackburn, born December 9, 1819 near West Newton, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, died February 22, 1904 at the home of a son, William, near Haviland, Ohio. She was 84 years, 2 months and 13 days.

When 13 years old, her parents moved by covered wagon from their Pennsylvania home to what is known as the McDowell farm near Webster, Putnam County, Ohio. Martha and 2 brothers walked the entire distance and kept the family supplied with game killed along the way. She helped prepare the timbers for the buildings, clear the fields and harvest crops in this pioneer home.

She married Isaac Newton Davis, October 10, 1836 near Webster and born of this union: 6 sons and 4 daughters.

Isaac died January 28, 1902, 2 daughters and 1 son preceeded her in death. She is survived by 5 sons, 2 daughters, 51 grandchildren, 47 great grandchildren and 1 great great grandchild and a host of friends.

Her life was full of hardships and her days troubled. She has not been free from pain, but she never complained.

These about her knew that she exercised more care and solicitude for the welfare of others. Although unable to walk in recent years, due to a hip injury, her hands were seldom idle and many are the little tokens which loved ones have to treasure in memory of her loving kindness.

Grandma Davis united with the M. E. Church in 1840 and was faithful to the end. Her recent illness was of short duration. She appeared as usual on Tuesday the 16th, but during the night lung trouble developed. She died of pneumonia at 7:45 a.m. Short services were conducted at the home of the son. Her favorite hymns were sung.

Services from U. B. Church conducted by Rev. J. G. Turner, were held on the 23rd at 2 p.m. Intermit was made beside her husband in Woodlawn Cemetery, near Kieferville, Ohio. Where rests the body.

Dear Mrs. Luegring:

Thank you for your interest in our project of collecting a photograph of every Civil War soldier. However, I am afraid you misunderstand our needs. We cannot make a good, publishable quality negative from copying an electrostatically produced paper image. We must copy from the original photograph or a good quality photographic print.

Do you have the original photograph/s of the paper image/s you sent? Would you be willing to loan those photographs to us to copy and make good negatives of? Or, if you will not loan the original photos to us to copy here, could you have them copied by a photographer in your area and donate the negatives to us. We must have good negatives in order to reproduce and make a print for a patron should he/she find one they would like.

For your convenience in sending us the original photos to copy or good copy negatives or good quality copy prints, I am enclosing a franked mailing label. We shall look forward to seeing your photographs.

Sincerely yours,

Michael J. Winey
Curator

PS: Please excuse the "Form Letter" but we have been receiving so many xerox copies because of misinformation we made up a form letter to expedite our correspondence. I am returning all of the material you sent. When you submit the original photo for us to copy or a good negative of the original please do send along this info. again as we will want to add it to our file along with the photo of Lewis Davis.

Lewis Davis ran away from home at 16 years, joined the Ohio Volunteers Co. G 99 at Findlay, Ohio, August 9, 1862 as a private in Civil War. Essie has information that he fought at:

1. Battle Chickamauga, Ga 9-1863 9-(19,-20)
2. Lookout Mountain, Ten 11-1863 11-(24-25)
3. Missionary Ridge Ten 11, 1863 11-25-

8. Kenesaw Mountain Ga 6-1864 6-(19-27)-1864
9. Nashville, Tenn. 12-1864 12-(15,16)-1864

He was severely wounded in Battle before Nashville, with a bullet in calf of leg.[1] He was mustered out, May 18, 1865 from Cincinnati, Ohio. He married Miss Catherine Hoskinson, August 1865.

June 14, 1870[2] found the family living in Union Township, Hancock County, McComb, Ohio. The family moved to Paulding County were Catherine died, November 2, 1873.[3] It is understood that Catherine was ill for sometime and the family had a hired girl, Miss Hester Ann Gillespie. Catherine died, leaving 3 or 4 small children motherless. Hester's parents would not permit her to live"in a home without a woman", so she returned to her home. The children were small and knew Hester. Lewis prevailed on Hester's father, Reverand John Gillespie to allow Hester to wed him. Hester's father married Lewis and Hester, December 17, 1873. Approximately 6 weeks after Catherine's death. A small son, Willie, died either shortly before or after the mother.
